

HOPE.

Parkinson's Disease

The American Parkinson Disease Association, Washington Chapter and the Northwest Parkinson's Foundation are co-hosting the region's largest educational symposium for patients, families, and caregivers. Don't miss this wonderful annual event.

Saturday, November 7, 2009

9 a.m – 3:30 p.m

Hilton Seattle Airport & Conference Center
Seattle, WA

Conference Highlights

- Update on Parkinson's Research William Langston, MD
- Beyond Drugs and Surgery: Laurie Mischley, ND
What Does Alternative Medicine
Have to Offer?
- Second Chances Robert Wu, MD and patient
- The Role of Chicken Soup and Stephen M. Setter, MD
Medications
- Parkinson's Disease & the Art of John Argue, author
Moving

Exhibitors and a variety of organizations will also share information & resources.

For more information and to register, go online at nwpf.org or call the Northwest Parkinson's Foundation at 1-877-980-7500.

This conference is sponsored by Teva Neurosciences, Novartis, Booth Gardner Parkinson's Care Center, Evergreen Healthcare, Medtronic, City of Seattle, and Cooper Martin. Thank you!